Merchants - Town Board to 'Revamp' Antioch

C of C Convenes, Plans Home Show

The monthly meeting of the Antioch Township Chamber of Commerce is slated for Monday, Nov. 6, at 7 p.m., reported John L. Horan, Chamber Executive Secretary. The meeting will be held at Adolph's Channel Inn.

This year's Home Show will be one of the matters taken up by the Chamber at this meeting. The show itself is planned to be similar to that of last year which was sponsored by the Lions Club at the Antioch Township High School. The Lions are not sponsoring the project this year. Monday night's meeting will determine the Chamber's part in the event.

Also up for discussion is the Santa Claus visit this year along with the Christmas decorations and the opening of the Christmas shopping program.

Legion Selects 1962 Officers

The board of directors of the Antioch Legion Post recently held their annual meeting at the Legion Home. The board was comprised of Paul L. Chase, William F. Chase, John F. Volk, John L. Horan, F. A. Swenson, George A. Swenson, Raymond B. Bruhn and Roman B. Vos.

An officer election was held which resulted in the return of the present officers to 1962 positions. Paul L. Chase as president, John L. Horan, as secretary and John F. Volk as treasurer were all retained. Adolph's Channel Inn was the setting for the American Legion dinner meeting. Those attending were the guests of Paul L. Chase.

Mr. Purl G. Wolber, 62, of 966 Hillside Ave., died Saturday, Oct. 28, in Victory Memorial Hospital, after a three day illness.

Mr. Wolber was born on June 28, 1899 in Bruck, Kansas, and lived in Waukegan, prior to coming to Antioch six years ago.

He was a member of the Methodist Church of Weir, Kansas and of the Waukegan Moose Lodge. A retired I. A. of M. of Fansteel Metallurgical Corp., he had served in the Service Troop of the 8th Cavalry in World War I.

Ina Lee Wolber survives her husband, as do two brothers, Donald of Chicago and Robert, Miami, Okla., and one sister, Elizabeth of Kansas City, Mo.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Strang Funeral Home, with the Rev. Wallace Anderson of the Antioch Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery.

Local Boy Is Elected

Jack Dupre, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dupre, was recently elected vice-president of the Business School at Stetson University in DeLand, Florida.

Dupre, who is a 1959 graduate of Antioch Township High School was also formally initiated into the Beta Alpha Sigma business fraternity at Stetson.

FFA Members Attend Class For Officers From Salem

The Future Farmers of America, Salem chapter, recently attended Officers' Training School at Jansville Senior High School. Six representatives plus Mr. Vaughn Sorenson were in attendance. They were Lynn Torrey, Marvin Drissel, Victor Kerkman, Warren "Light-hardt," LeRoy Reiter, and Donald Schaeffer.

Each group met to discuss their particular offices and the jobs which the office entailed. Twenty chapters around Southeastern Wisconsin were represented, with about 80 boys in attendance. Round table discussions gave new ideas to the boys of each club, and much was derived from such a meeting.

Those Wild Old Days Flee Modern Trick-Or-Treaters

By Lou Durkin

There has been much ado of late about the physical softness of American youth and this is probably cause for real concern, but we should also be concerned about the lack of initiative and high spirits on the part of our small fry.

The other Trick or Treat night, motivated in part by laziness and partly by a desire to see what would happen, we told a group of pint-sized bell-ringers that we were all out of goodies and they would have to proceed with their tricks.

Nothing. Not a tomato thundered against the door. Not a single buggy appeared on the porch. Not a streak of soap marred the windows.

Suddenly it occurred to me that we had been patsies for the past couple of years, succumbing to threats from a bunch of knickerbockered brigands who threatened reprisal if their demands for blackmail were not met, but who had no idea of how to carry out their threats.

Apparently the kids have been imbued with the idea that their mere appearance would be enough to bring them a shower of goodies so they are all shook up when they victim refuses to pay tribute and tell them to do their worst.

No doubt there are evil overtones to this extortion bit which would bring furrows of worry to the double-domed sociologists and psychologists, but as long as the kids are giving the neighbors a choice of Trick or Treat, they should come prepared with some type of skull-duggery and mischief to educate the neighborhood skink who refuses to loosen up.

Open-handed submission to blackmail has robbed the kids of initiative and has made the fall holiday a meaningless date on the calendar kept alive only by the candy interests.

Frankly, we would like to see the Antioch village Chic Sale on the roof of the village hall again, or a fence gate draped over the mayor's roof.

Actually, it isn't all the kids' fault since police and other authorities have killed off any chance of the new generation emulating their elders in concocting Halloween mischief.

But bobbing for apples will never replace the thrill of lobbing cabbages and other garden furnished ammunition.

School Board Chooses Cafeteria Equipment

The Antioch Township High School Board, meeting Wednesday, Oct. 25, considered bids on science equipment from three independent firms. The bids were turned in by Hamilton Manufacturing of Two Rivers, Wis., for $44,980, the Leonard Peterson Co. of Chicago, for $50,446 and the E. H. Sheldon Co. of Muskegon, Mich., for $54,754.

Cafeteria equipment was also considered and judgment of the desired goods was registered. Among those bidding on the cafeteria equipment were Alex Janous Co. of Chicago at $21,445, Albert Pick, at $20,497 and Stearnes Co. of Chicago at $20,934. The company chosen to supply the cafeteria equipment was the Sun Ray Co. of Rockford. Their bid was $19,511.70.

The board, along with its other

Junior Boomers Have No Corps

The Antioch boy's Drum and Bugle Corps sponsored by the American Legion has been suspended, reported John Horan. The boys, numbering five in all, had met four Saturdays in a row, hoping that a larger turnout would evolve.

Since no new joiners were forthcoming, the instruments delivered to the boys present were picked up by Larry Garbowski, manager of the Lake County Drum Corps, Inc.

perfunctory duties, authorized the purchase of a 32x832 rubber-wrestling mat. The cost of the mat was nominal.

Mr. A. L. Dittman, Superintendent of the High School, offered forth his plan to fence off the railway area between the regular and practice football fields. The board reviewed the blueprints of the proposed plan.

Before adjourning, the board planned to study the proposed lighting in the boys' gym.

Businessmen's Committee Pushes For Parking Area

With an almost ominous and foreboding silence engulfing them, both members of the Antioch Village Board and the Chamber of Commerce, along with independent businessmen and property owners sat quietly Tuesday night, Oct. 31, at 8 p.m. and waited to begin discussion of the Village's business and civic problems.

The meeting was called to order by John L. Horan, who, at the request of President M. Cunningham, contacted all businessmen in the Village.

President Cunningham, when first speaking, noted that 62 businessmen were obviously absent and said, "Those not present are only hurting themselves. If they want to stay in business they should be here." 30 persons; 11 Chamber Members, 11 independents, and 4 Village Board members were present.

Cunningham went on to say that "We should discourage shopping centers from coming into the Village." He asked for the general help of the public and the specific help of the town's businessmen to keep from drawing business from the center of the town. "If something isn't done," Cunningham said, "We're all going to be in trouble." He stated that six shopping center interests had already inquired about possible location in the Village, or near its limits.

It was also stated that this problem should be of interest to all local businessmen wherever they may be located.

Cunningham proposed that a road be put through the area behind the stores and businesses on the east side of Main Street, running from Park Avenue to Depot Street. After the completion of the road, which would afford additional parking, larger parking areas would be constructed for the convenience of shoppers in the area and also as an inducement for others to come into Antioch's locale.

Parking area to the rear of stores on the west side of Main was also discussed and the possibility of its eventual blacktopping. Cunningham was not in favor of having additional meters on the present parking area to the west or the proposed parking area to the east. He then proposed that the Board and businessmen share costs and planning on the new proposals. Those present almost heartily agreed to extend their cooperation.

It was also stated that aside from civic improvements, more retail businesses and light industries were needed to meet the eventual threat of corporat shopping centers.

William Brook of the State Bank stated that the first order of business to be taken care of was to get the road through.

The sales tax not being adequate to furnish the costs was dismissed. Those attending felt, in general, that the public would not support floating a bond issue. Cunningham stated that since the Village Board could not afford the entire project, the only way to solve the problem would be for a joint effort of both the Board and all the proprietors and property holders, sharing costs.

Charles Keulman offered to give the road right-of-way on his property to a 60 ft. easement of the project if others would donate a similar amount in cash, land or effort.

Robert Taylor produced a map which surveyed the area under discussion, describing in detail of the road's construction.

President Cunningham then appointed a committee comprised of local businessmen to approach those property holders and businessmen not present in order to get the right away for the project. Committee members are Joseph Patrovsky, Charles Keulman, Irv Carey, Robert Taylor and Robert Wilton. This liaison committee is expected to push forward within the next few weeks in obtaining permission for the required amount of land right-of-way. They will work closely with the Village Board in this operation.

The meeting, which, through apparent opinion, seemed exceedingly successful, adjourned at 9:40 p.m. Another meeting of the same nature is planned for the near future.

Football Star Turns Teacher In Rural Area

William Hart, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart of Antioch, is a current student teacher at Edison Junior High School. Hart, who is a physical education major, is presently attending Western Illinois University.

One-hundred student teachers at Western Illinois University are getting their first classroom experience this fall, with a number putting in full time, according to Dr. George Porter, co-ordinator of Laboratory Experiences.

A third of the student teachers are doing their teaching on the Macomb campus at the WIU Lab. School.

Hart, who is participating in this year's program, was a 1958 graduate of Antioch Township High School and received the most valuable football player award that year. Hart's position on the squad was end.

4-H CLUB SEWERS

The North Star Sewing Group is a newly formed 4-H Club under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Saugstad of North Ave.

There were 14 girls registered when the club was started in September.

Shop In Your Home Town

With the great flux of suburban living in our community added to its industrial and civic growth, we tend to drift away from the core of origin, our own downtown area.

Of course, it is the habit for many to come into town at least once or twice a week, stop at as many stores possible, purchasing something at each establishment. Still others do not practice this customer thoughtfulness. They prefer to obtain their weekly items from other areas. Some even travel as far as Milwaukee to avoid paying the sales tax.

In our opinion this represents a lack of civic interest, a loss of pride in one's own home town. Economically speaking, it also represents a tremendous disadvantage placed upon the local merchants who, unfortunately, have to bear the brunt of downtown costs and expenditures without reaping the rewards of consistent and loyal patronage.

It is important to note that Antioch, one of the most established and one of the best maintained villages in Lake County has everything to offer the consumer. The shops and stores are clean, available, and have every accessory that one could desire. The salesmen and saleswomen are courteous, efficient and friendly.

We feel that since the merchants have taken the pains and the continual headaches in order to remain open for the consumer's convenience and comfort, it is the duty of everyone to patronize their stores.

Everytime a civic function demands planning, financial assistance and general cooperation, the merchants are the first to respond. They give and they give generously. It is only fair that we show our appreciation by supporting them locally.

Naturally enough, as in all small towns, there arises petty bickering and arguments concerned with the merchants in and around the core of our village. But this is not the fault of any one man or group of men. This is merely everyone talking for himself and we can be thankful that in a smaller community, an individual voice rings out much clearer than in a large metropolitan area.

We feel that if everybody examined their memories, they would be able to remember when they could have done just that "little bit more" to signify their community support of our village businessmen and merchants.

It is our opinion that in accord with our growth, our community progress toward the common goal of well-earned bounty, we should turn our consumer attention to the heart of the matter—to the merchants who continue to keep that heart pumping. And that is the downtown of Antioch.

Let us set forth at least one day out of the week in which we intend to use our purchasing power in support of the town we live in. Let us have an "Antioch Day". And let every day be "Antioch Day".

Radio Droners
Dull Chicago

By Jay Nash

The latest word from the chilly Kremlin (gremlin) is that Peck's bad boy, Mr. K. has endorsed a ban on Mickey Mouse comic books, stating that they are against peace. Yeah, and what about Donald Duck, Mr. K? He does a lot of squawking, just an irritable subversive duck. What about him? Don't forget Bugs Bunny, either. The guy's a capitalist. He hoards carrots.

I wonder when Khrushchev will get around to Elmer Fudd, Porky Pig, Yosemite Sam, the Tasmanian Devil, those devil-may-care cloak-and-dagger boys who are always busy contaminating the minds of the young with that old, unpardonable sin of laughter.

Poor old Mickey. Purged at the height of his career. I wonder what Mr. K. did for excitement when he was a lad? Shot the eyes out of sparrows?

Who's next on the list, Mr. K? Mel Blanc?

Driving home the other night, I happened to hear a program called "Viewpoint" blaring out from the car radio. The guest of this "talk" show was John Justin Smith of the nostalgia-bloated Daily News.

Smith rattled on and on about how great a newspaper he worked for, the narrators quizzing him thoroughly as if he were the arbiter of journalism today.

Some of Smith's answers, although weighty with appellatives, sounded as if a young man dressed in a Brooks Bros suit had stepped out on Madison Avenue to talk to the lowly forms passing by. His answers to provocative questions were those of the organization man defending the corporate idea. "We must protect the public image of our newspapers," he said, whatever that means.

Smith, who is now the main trouble-shooter for the News since Jack Mabley got the boot to the American, talked conventionally in grunts and groans for over twenty minutes before I viciously snapped off the radio. I whistled all the way home and enjoyed myself immensely.

As if that was not enough, upon returning home, I switched on the radio again just in time to hear Tony Weitzel droning over the waves. It went something like: Tony Weitzel here. In case you don't know, I'm a big-city boy. Gun. I write a column for the Daily News (there's that name again, stand up and cheer!) At the Am-

American Experience

By Ray Fuehrer

Both Beethoven and Mozart composed music for it. The instrument enjoyed an immense popularity, especially in Germany and Austria for half a century. It made its inventor famous among German musicians. The instrument? The harmonica. Its inventor? Benjamin Franklin.

The basic principle of the harmonica, or as it is now spelled, harmonica, was nothing new. Not at all related to the mouth organ harmonica we know today, Franklin's invention was essentially based upon the notion of musical glasses. In 1743, an Irishman, Richard Puckeridge, had brought together a number of glasses of different sizes in which were placed varying amounts of water, and from which he brought out the tones by "passing his fingers around their brims." Unfortunately Mr. Puckeridge's invention perished in a fire and the unfortunate Mr. Puckeridge with it. The instrument first came to Benjamin Franklin's attention in 1759 at a meeting of the Royal Society in London. A member of the group, a Mr. Edmund Delaval, had produced an imitation of Mr. Puckeridge's invention and he played it for the amusement of the group. Franklin was charmed by it. He resolved to put the glasses together in a more convenient form and so came upon the invention of the harmonica.

In a letter to an Italian scientist dated July 13, 1762, Franklin describes the essentials of his new invention. "The glasses are blown as near as possible in the form of hemispheres, having each an open neck or socket in the middle." With these glass hemispheres of various thicknesses in diameters ranging from 3 inches to 9 inches, Franklin built a practical instrument, which when assembled, was "sufficient for three octaves with all the semitones." The hemispheres were mounted on a rod. The rod was connected to a spinning wheel turned by the foot. This gave the performer free rein to exercise his virtuosity. The glasses were played by placing the finger against the edge of the rotating hemispheres.

As Franklin wrote: The advantages of this instrument are that its tones are incomparably sweet beyond those of any other; that they may be swelled and softened at pleasure by stronger or weaker pressures of the finger, and continued to any length; and that the instrument, being once tuned, never again wants tuning."

The popularity of the harmonica was sudden. Manufactured in London, the vogue for the instrument was carried by performers to Italy and France. Marie Antoinette studied music on it. Its greatest popularity was in Germany and Austria. Its arrival in Vienna was undoubtedly welcomed by Christoph Willibald von Gluck, who had already composed pieces for musical glasses. As Paganini was later celebrated as a virtuoso on the guitar and violin, in the late 18th century there existed virtuosos on the harmonica. But in 1800, almost as suddenly as it had begun, the harmonica craze ended, and almost nothing is heard of it thereafter.

As to the sound of the instrument to our own ears, it is still very pleasing. Mozart's Adagio in C Major, Adagio in C Minor, and a Rondo in C Major for Glass Harmonica may still be heard on a Decca Archives Record: Dec. ARC-3044.

And what did Franklin himself think of his invention? His biographer, Carl Van Doren, states: "Nothing he wrote between 1757 and 1762, no experiment he undertook and carried out, absorbed him more happily than his musical invention."

your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

In view of the progress, or rather lack of progress, on the important issues before the special session of the General Assembly, two weeks ago I took a firm stand and called attention to the true nature of what was taking place in the legislature.

My opening statement was: "First, I would like everyone to understand that neither I nor any citizen of this state can quarrel with the dedicated efforts of the responsible members of the legislature—who have done their utmost to serve the interests of the people they represent. These legislators, both Republican and Democrat, should be complimented for their public spirited approach to the matters before this special session."

I here, now, re-affirm this statement, because the majority of the assemblymen from both political parties are dedicated to fulfill the responsibility placed upon them as representatives of the people.

The remainder of my remarks was devoted to reprimanding certain other legislators whose activities could not be included among those who were apparently trying to serve the best interests of the people. Up until that time I had refrained from publicly criticizing any one or any group, although I had been criticized on many occasions. I had hoped that both parties could resolve their differences and reach agreement on the several important matters up for consideration.

Inasmuch as these differences were not being resolved, and further, in my opinion, good faith had been by-passed in negotiation, I felt it my duty to the people of Illinois to focus attention on this fact in a forceful manner.

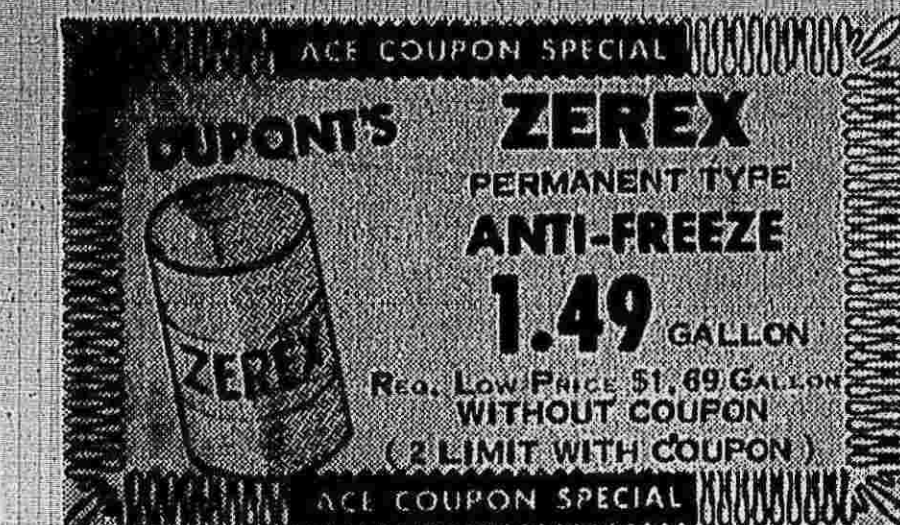

It is my hope and I am certain it is the hope of the people of Illinois that the final days of the special session will be characterized by accomplishments which are predicated on what is best for Illinois and its citizens.

To attain this goal will require a cooperative spirit from both parties. I am certain that if such cooperation can be attained, it will serve to consolidate our thinking on other problems facing our state.

If this is the result of the special session, the rightful beneficiaries of this cooperative effort—the people of Illinois—will have been properly served.

One big trouble with the weather is that it overdoes almost everything it does.—Jackson Herald, Ripley, W. Va.

Channel Lake News

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

The Halloween Dance held by the Channel Lake Community Club Saturday night at the American Legion hall in Antioch drew a good crowd in spite of the bad weather and conflicting activities. The costumes were many and clever. Prizes for the best costumes went to Richard Irmen, as the Hunchback of Notre Dame, and Joan Wells, a lady cannibal.

Christine Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chase, was among the children from Channel Lake who made their first communion on Sunday at St. Peter's church in Antioch.

A party in her honor was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chase in the afternoon with Christine's grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Davern and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chase—and the William Chase family and Mrs. Dorothy Olson as guests.

Happy birthday this week to Bruce McKinney, and to Mrs. William Chase on Nov. 1.

Mrs. Richard Waters is a patient at the Garfield Park Hospital in Chicago.

The meeting of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club on Wednesday, Oct. 25, was devoted to further planning for the ice-fishing derby to be held in January and reports on the progress of plans for the refuse cans to be placed on the ice on lakes by the club.

Probable site of the derby, to be held in January, will be the south end of Channel Lake. There will be many smaller derbies within the larger contest, giving even the inexperienced fisherman a chance to score a win.

Doughnuts and coffee were served at the close of the meeting.

Shower news for this week: The employees of the First National Bank of Antioch surprised their fellow employee, Miss Vivian Gruidt, with a dinner and bridal shower at Joe & Helen's Little Acres at Loom Lake. The guest of honor received a corsage and many lovely gifts. Vivian marries Earl Bartley on November 4.

About one hundred and fifty guests attended the Golden Wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Thies of Channel Lake on Saturday night, October 29, at Lorena Smart Country House. Many friends from Park Ridge, where the Thies' lived after their marriage before moving to Channel Lake, were present to congratulate the couple, as well as many friends from the Antioch area. Among those present were Mrs. W. W. Hendrickson of Palatine, who served as maid of honor at the wedding of Julia Fisher and Fred Thies.

Mr. and Mrs. Thies were married at the Fisher home in Park Ridge on October 25, 1911, with the Rev. Paul Guelson of St. Andrews church officiating at the ceremony. They lived in Park Ridge after their marriage, where Mr. Thies taught music.

The Thies' have four children: Vivian, now Mrs. William Fiegel of Park Ridge; Agnes, now Mrs. Ray Van Patten of Channel Lake; June now Mrs. Herbert Jackisch of Mt. Prospect, and Frederick, Jr., of Maywood. They have ten grandchildren: William and Marguerite Fiegel; Ray, Jr. and Barry Van Patten; Judy and Stephen Jackisch; and Frederick T., Patricia and Jonathan and Jeffrey Thies. Jonathan and Jeffrey are the twin sons of Marian and Fred, Jr.

The Thies' had a summer home in Woodcrest Subdivision at Channel Lake for many years, and moved here permanently in 1949. Mr. Thies still teaches music in the Antioch area.

Topics for Today's Women

Political Speaker to Address AWC Nov. 6

The Antioch Woman's Club will hear Miss Mathilde Ernestine at its meeting November 6 at the Scout House. The subject of her talk will be "The Kremlin in Cuba and South America and its threat to the American government and way of life." Miss Ernestine, it was reported, plans to offer concrete suggestions for interested and patriotic citizens interested in checking the growth of communism.

Miss Ernestine has devoted study to communism since 1947 and has received enthusiastic testimonials for her carefully documented lectures, presented to the American Legion, VFW, DAR, Kiwanis, Colleges and Women's Clubs. She is the founder of "Salute to Freedom" weekly programs now being sponsored by the VFW of Illinois.

Educated at the University of Chicago and Northwestern University in the schools of Journalism, plus receiving a good deal of training in Europe, Miss Ernestine was present at the first Red rally in Havana in 1954.

Since this meeting is Guest Day, all members are urged by the club's officers to attend with friends.

The hostess committee for the day is comprised of Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Edmund Vos, Mrs. Edward Cranley, Mrs. Fred Swanson, Mrs. Richard Major, Mrs. Robert Gaston, Mrs. Edwin

Along The Way

with Annie Mae

Now that you're all stuffed with the kids' trick-or-treat goodies, and the last squeals of the Goblins have faded away, I don't want you to think you can sit back and take it easy! It's just 21 days till you'll be stuffing that big old bird again (of course I'm talking about the Turkey, you didn't think I meant you!)

And there are 43 shopping days till Christmas!! If you think I'm rushing the season, don't kid yourself, last night I heard "Auld Lang Syne" on a local D. J. show. How about that!

Picture of the week (If I only had a camera): Bette Meyer's face when she won the fifty smackers at a subdivision Halloween party Saturday night.

Rumors have it that the stork was noting the address of a local business man and his B. W. (that's Beautiful Wife, in case you don't read Earl Wilson).

Those droopy eyes on Bill Brook and Ted Larson have nothing to do with an eye disease. It's a seasonal epidemic called "early rising duck hunters!"

Do you suppose it has dawned on the Village Fathers and the local business men that one is no good without the other? Maybe the steady rise in sales-tax receipts of surrounding village have them worried, and justly so. Keep it up fellows, hand in hand is the only answer.

Seen standing on the corner, three local lovelies admiring each other's hair-hues! Pretty, too.

One last comment for the week. "People use to give up everything for money, now they give up money for everything."

Now let me know whatever you do or whatever you say, just write to me Along the Way.

Annie Mae

Men's Club
The Lindenhurst Men's Club will meet Thursday evening at the Civic Center on Old Elm Road at 8 p.m. All men of the village are invited to attend.

Inside Antioch High

By Mike Brooks

The week of November 6-11 will be American Education Week. The main theme will be, "Your Schools: Time for a Progress Report." Each day will have a sub-theme which will include: Time to Test Our Convictions, Time to Decide on Essentials, Time to Work Together, Time to Explore New Ideas, Time to Salute Good Teachers, Time to Pay the Price for Excellence and Time to Look Outside Our Borders.

There are 42 teachers on this year's staff. Of this number 23 have their Master's Degree. Nine others have started work toward a Master's. The teachers' work doesn't end after classes are over each day. There are conferences with students, plans to be made for the following week, plays to direct, newspapers and yearbook deadlines to meet, faculty meetings to attend, teams to coach, and almost anything else one can think of for a teacher to do.

The "boys and girls" that are in trouble are helped by various staff members and the "young men and women" who seek help in their careers are all "waited on." A student can take all his problems to a teacher and always find a pair of open ears waiting for him. Then there is homework for the teachers to do. Many hours are put in for the benefit of students who may not realize how much their teachers mean to them. In a few years, they will look back and see what they were in high school for and will see that that time was not wasted.

Basketball fever is in the air at ATHS. Murmurs of "Who is going to start?" What kind of season will it be?" are heard almost every way

I turn. Most of us are looking forward to a very successful season. The first home game is December 1 with Wauconda.

For the wrestling fans, not "wrestlin'" ATHS is in the Wrestling Conference this year. The sport was started last year but they could not join the conference until this year. We look forward to a very successful season in this new sport at ATHS. Mr. Walther is Varsity coach.

After seeing the condition the rain left our present football field in, ATHS will be glad to see the new stadium completed by next season.

Illinois Duck Season Opens, Grass Lake Hunting Explodes

A cloudy, windy day was the setting Saturday, Oct. 28, when the duck season officially opened in Illinois at noon.

"The war of Grass Lake" as it is generally referred to by veteran hunters brought out from 800 to 1000 duck hunters to that area, estimated Charles Haling, of Haling's Resort.

Even though a terrific pelting of shot was aimed in every direction at the 8000 hens in the area, no injuries were sustained by the hunters. It was also reported by Haling that everyone got their limit of two ducks.

Hunters stalked their prey in boats, behind blinds and from the shore. A few arrests were made by conservation wardens of those shooting from motor boats, which is not legal in the hunt.

About 415,000 ducks are on hand in Illinois for the 1961 duck season, which closes at sundown Sunday, Nov. 28. The daily bag limit is two ducks and the possession limit is four ducks.

Only one wood duck and one hooded merganser may be taken per day, and these must be counted as part of the regular bag limit. Canvasback and redhead ducks are protected. Shooting hours are from sunrise to sunset.

The total duck population in Illinois is about 80,000 less than last year at the same time. Duck populations in the state are about 40 percent below the 15 year average for the same date.

The best two shooting areas should be Batchtown and Stump Lake, if duck concentration is any criteria. Close to 12,000 pintails, 7,500 mallards and 2,200 blackjacks were seen at Batchtown and 9,000 wideopen, 1,500 mallards and 700 of other species were counted at Stump Lake. Both of these backwater lakes are at the junction of the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers.

Lake Forest Stops Antioch By 27-0 Score

Due to the torrential condition of the area in the Sequoia's last football game against the powerful Lake Forest, neither adequate pictures nor story-line was available.

Coach Bob Walther of Antioch's High school stated that Lake Forest scored in every quarter with their ace, Weigel scoring two touchdowns and leading the way to the eventual score of 27 to 0.

Both teams were almost completely covered with mud so that not even the official markers knew who was who.

The only consequential attack against Lake Forest by Antioch was when a pass interception led them to the Lake Forest 10 yd. line where they were stopped cold. The brief rally came in the fourth quarter, but was completely ineffectual against the league-leading Lake Forest team.

Coach Walther further reported that both Pleviak and Les Geist suffered broken noses in the game, Geist being put out to pasture for the rest of the season.

Regarding the on-coming game between a top-notch Grant squad this Saturday, Walther said, that "I feel that the kids are really working and it will be the best game of the year for us."

The Sequoia's will meet Grant at Fox Lake this Saturday night, the game starting at 8:30 p.m. The Freshman-Sophomore game will be held at 6:30. Being the last game of the season, full support of students and local residents is expected.

To date, both Bill and the team have had all wins. At Cornell's Homecoming Bill won in 14:04 over a 2.9 mile course. This was the first time any team of Cornell has ever beat Iowa State Teachers.

At Dubuque on Tuesday Bill broke their track record by 30 seconds, running in 15:59 over the 3.3 mile course.

Bill is a junior at Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Iowa, and a 1959 graduate of Antioch.

Ex-Antioch Prep Stars Win Touch Football Title

Pittman Motors of Antioch won the Waukegan Touch Football round championship Sunday by defeating Jimmie John's Tap 19-0 at Victory Field.

This victory, the fifth in a row for Pittman Motors, was again sparked by quarterback Don Pyles who threw touchdown passes of 18 and 26 yards to Chuck Schuth, and an extra point toss to Dick Carlucci while scoring a third touchdown himself on a 54 yard run, to wind up the first half's scoring and eventually the game with 19 points.

Pittman Motors' defensive unit which consists of linemen Walt Rosequist, Tom Burda, and Dick Mika teamed up with Bob Boyle, Frank Nosak and Capt. Jim Scully in the secondary to hold Jimmie Johns scoreless and never allowed them inside the 20 yard line. Statistics from the first five games show this defensive unit has allowed just 31 points, 12 of which were on intercepted passes, while the offensive unit with Don Pyles and Al Reckers quarterbacking, Sid Parker and Chuck Schuth, Russ Cote, ends, with fine blocking from linemen Dick Carlucci, Joel Armstrong and Paul Williamson have racked up a total of 112 points.

Pittman Motors will play again next Sunday to start league round robin playoffs.

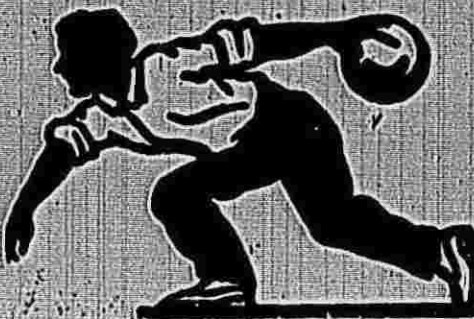

The honored guests at a post team celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Don Pittman. Mr. Pittman is well known in the Antioch area for his interest in sports. Last summer his softball team placed first in the Lake-Keno league. They also won the Richard Seyfarth Memorial Tournament and placed second in the Lake County tournament. Presently Mr. Pittman is sponsoring the Antioch Scouts basketball team and both men and women's bowling teams.

This winter he will initiate an amateur hockey team in the Antioch area.

At this time the members of the Don Pittman Athletic Club would like to thank both Don and his wife for their active interest and participation in post-school athletics.

Midwest To Award Trophies To Noted Illinois Drivers

The annual stock drivers' awards night party sponsored by Midwest Speedways, Inc. in which drivers of the modified and sportsman stock cars will receive various awards for their season efforts, is scheduled for Saturday night, Nov. 4, at the Nightingale Ballroom, Highway 145 and 74, just northwest of Milwaukee.

Highlights of the evening include music by Russ Roland's ten-piece orchestra and by Denny King and the Darnells, the appearance of Miss Judith Greco, the 1961 Miss Wisconsin of the Miss World contest, free refreshments, the various trophy and other awards to the top three drivers of each track, plus the distribution of $9,100 in point fund money which will be shared by 61 different drivers representing the top 30 at each track. In addition, Radio Station WRIT will award two beautiful trophies to the modified and sportsman driver voted most popular.

Ten Illinois drivers are among the 61 drivers scheduled to be honored at the awards party. The ten represent various places at the Waukegan oval, whose share in the $9,100 point fund amounts to $1,900. Jack Frost of Zion, who finished third, will receive a beautiful third-place trophy in addition to his share of the point fund which amounts to nearly $194. Bob Karry of Lindenhurst placed sixth at Waukegan and will receive nearly $118 plus an additional $25 for finishing 14th at the Fair Park Jack Radtke, Grayslake, finished 8th, which is worth nearly $84. Junior Dodd of Waukegan will receive a $38 bonus for his 13th position. Bay Darnell of Deerfield placed 18th, and his check will amount to nearly $37. George Bellegante of Winthrop Harbor and Ken Heiden of Barrington were 19th and 20th respectively and will receive nearly $25 and $23 each. Swede Erickson of Gurnee finished 23rd and will receive $17. Jim Bozemann and Tom Powers, both of Zion, placed 24th and 30th for $15 and $4 each.

The point fund represents a bonus award and is over and above the monies drivers earned during the course of the season. The largest slice of the fund will go to Miles Mellus of Slinger, Wis., who was the over-all champion, finishing first at Hales Corners, Fair Park and Slinger and placing second at Cedarburg. His share amounts to over $1,000. Mellus will be official host for the event and will greet fans alongside Miss Wisconsin.

Festivities begin at 8 o'clock and will continue until 1 a.m., with presentations scheduled for 10:15 p.m. The public is invited.

that's THE LAW

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
IN COOPERATION WITH THIS NEWSPAPER

THE LAW PROTECTS REPUTATIONS AS WELL AS PROPERTY

Are you aware that your rights to speak and write as you please are subject to some definite limitations?

"Defamation" is speaking or writing falsely or maliciously about another in a way that tends to injure his good reputation or hold him up to public ridicule or hatred. If defamation is spoken it is called "slander," and if written it is known as "libel."

It is defamatory, for instance, to state falsely or maliciously that a person has committed a serious crime ("thief," "perjurer," etc.), or to say things falsely that tend to injure a person in his business or profession (that a storeowner is a "cheat," that a doctor is a "quack," etc.), or to remark that a woman is unchaste.

The person defamed has a right to sue the speaker or writer for damages for injury to his reputation.

Libel Is Written Defamation

Libel is considered a more serious wrong than slander, because of the permanency and publicity of writings. Libel is not confined to words alone, for the courts have held that photographs may be defamatory.

Some courts consider defamatory statements made over the radio to be libel rather than slander. The difference is more than just a technical one, because, in Illinois at least, there is quite a difference between libel and slander cases as to the proof necessary and the damages recoverable.

Publication—Privilege

No defamation can occur until the remark or writing is communicated to some person other than the person spoken of. So it is not legally wrong, for example, to privately accuse another of a crime, or to write a private letter containing otherwise libelous remarks about the addressee. The law protects only our reputation, not our feelings.

Many statements that are otherwise slanderous or libelous are protected by what is known as legal "privileges." In other words, these are cases in which the law allows defamatory statements to be made without risk of a law suit, because it is in the interest of the public that the information be communicated to others.

For instance, you are free to report your suspicions of crime to a policeman, or to testify in court to another's wrongful conduct, or to give vent to fair and reasonable criticism of those who hold public office, or who come into the public limelight. It is not slander to accuse a local official for inefficiency in office, or decry the abilities of members of the local baseball team.

Truth: A Defense

It is not always a defense to an action for libel or slander that the statement in question is true. Illinois law requires also that the statement be made with good motives and for justifiable ends. Therefore, if the statement is made for the purpose of injuring the other's reputation or business, it would be a legal wrong even though the information is accurate. Thus the law of this State seeks to prevent "poison pen" invective, which has no legitimate purpose. This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney.

Even a slight difference in the facts may change the results under the law.

Lake Villa Has Boom in Books

By Mrs. Roger Prosser

The Lake Villa Township Library Eugene Prange Memorial book collection is proving helpful and enjoyable to local Boy Scouts. Continuing contributions by Mrs. Herbert Prange, mother of the late Eugene Prange, have now completed the collection of hard cover Merit Badge books for the Boy Scout program. Other nature study and science books of interest to young boys will be added to the collection.

Two excellent art books have been added to the library's books by Miss Belle Hughes of Waukegan who formerly lived in Lake Villa as a child. "Three Hundred Years of American Painting" and "National Gallery of Art" were presented to the library in memory of Anne Stewart Hughes and John H. Hughes.

A new informational pamphlet collection is being widely used by students and adults. Such varied subjects as contact lenses, Latin in our schools, your canary bird and contract bridge are giving users a concise and helpful source of information.

The Lake Villa Township Library is finding that local residents are enjoying the new library hours. Trial opening of the library on Monday evenings 7 to 9 seems appealing to students and other readers.

The Library is open 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Saturday hours are 10 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

The Lake Villa Township Library was the scene of a meeting of librarians from surrounding areas on October 19, at 10 a.m.

Discussions concerned ways of improving service. Mrs. Hanna and Miss Farver of the Illinois State Library's regional staff were present to answer questions or to learn first hand of problems in the field.

The Library proudly presents an art display of oils by Nancy Wetterberg, young Lake Villa artist now studying at Northern Illinois State University.

Local art patrons find Nancy's well executed detail and feeling, quite mature and exciting.

The Lake Villa Township Library continues compilation of creative writing, both prose and poetry, submitted by young people of the area. Several educators have indicated great interest in this self-directed effort by teenagers in the Lake Villa area to make up a Teen Book of their own writings.

PLACE TO START

The military budget, following the massive increases asked by the President in his broadcast of July 23 and his message to Congress that followed the next day, is some $47.5 billion for this fiscal year. The result will be a deficit of billions.

It is obviously necessary to now reduce government costs wherever possible.

The President has taken some notice of this need. Specifically, he pointed to the post office deficit. It runs to about $700 million a year. The only remedy is higher post office charges.

Congress has always been reluctant to increase the rates for letter, newspapers and magazines. It still is—the House Post Office Committee voted July 20 to defer action in postal rate increases. But there is at least one post office function—parcel post—which is in an entirely different category. It is not a basic function. It is entirely commercial in nature. It serves no purpose of public enlightenment and education, as does the carrying of the mails, newspapers and magazines. It competes directly with private parcel carriers. And its rates are not sufficient to pay the costs.

Parcel post is an excellent place to start in reducing the post office deficit.

The Ken Rollins and John Chmielewski were hosts for the evening.

Joe Botts came dressed as Aunt Jemima and won a tape measure for first prize. No need to say the tape measure didn't go around, with all the padding and balloons he used. Mary Jane Rollins received a wrist pin cushion as her prize. She was a Russian peasant. Bob and Dorothy Smith were dressed as the Smith Brothers Cough Drops. Tracie and Mark Dolly Chmielewski (who is expecting a baby soon) came dressed as a baby. Her husband, John, was a scarecrow. Edna Botts was a beatnik. The William Seiferts were ghosts. Eloise and Warren Brown wore their clothes backwards and wore their masks on the back of their heads. Other costumes worn were clowns, Chinese girl, beatniks, and the Flintstones.

Games were played and refreshments of chili, apple juice, cookies and coffee were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Botts will be hosts for the November meeting. A treasure hunt is being planned. Last year's treasure hunt was a lot of fun, so plan on attending this year's. If you know the Smiths and the Botts like I do, they'll have a lot of odd things cooked up for you to find.

Birthdays

Our policemen will be around to see you soon. This is one dance that everyone in the Village should support.

Fortieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. August Helle of Helen Drive celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, Oct. 22 with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 11:15 at Prince of Peace Church and then had lunch with friends and relatives at the Rustic Manor, Open House was held from 4 to 7 for their friends.

They have three children: Mrs. Thomas Wilson of Forest Park; Peter Helle and Giles Helle, both of Chicago.

Anniversary

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Coles of Valley Drive on their sixth wedding anniversary. They have two little boys, Steven 5, and Richard, almost 4. The stork is leaving them another child in about six weeks.

Ron is our Juvenile Officer and organizer of the Junior Police. I don't know of any other man in the village who has done so much for our young boys. Now he is working with the boys in the National Rifle Association.

Altar and Rosary Society

The Altar and Rosary Society of Prince of Peace Church had their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 1, after Mass in the evening.

Phone Calls

Ruralists Are Bond Boosters

Farmers and ranchers have been among the best customers for U. S. Savings Bonds since 1941, the Treasury Department said today in a 20th anniversary bond salute to the farm community.

The statement, carried in a public service newspaper ad announcing November as "Farm Month" in the bond program's anniversary calendar, pointed out that one-third of all cash reserves owned by farmers and ranchers is in the form of E and H Savings Bonds.

"Bonds owned by farmers have their work cut out for them," the message said. "They replace machinery, pay for new land, provide insurance against the risks of farming. They get personal assignments, too, like sending the youngsters to college. . . . Savings Bonds are a crop that never fails."

Responding to the Treasury's tribute, leaders of the nation's three major farm organizations gave testimonials to the attractiveness of Savings Bonds to farmers. Statements by James G. Patton, President of the National Farmers Union; Charles B. Shuman, President of the American Farm Bureau Federation; and Herschel D. Newsom, Master of the National Grange, called bonds "an investment in America herself . . . the best 'hired hand' in the business," and said farmers' current bond investment of $5.2 billion "is a tribute both to their thrift habits and to Bonds."

25th Anniversary For Van Pattens

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Patten gathered at the Van Patten home Saturday night, Oct. 21, to celebrate the couple's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. All of the wedding party were present to remember the happy day, as were the two sons of the Van Pattens, and many relatives. Many beautiful gifts were received by Ray and Agnes.

A delicious buffet supper was served during the course of the evening. Mrs. Van Patten wore a beautiful sheath of white brocade for the occasion, and a wrist corsage.

Agnes Thies became the bride of Ray Van Patten on October 20, 1936, at St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Park Ridge.

Miss Vivian Thies, sister of the bride (now Mrs. William Fiege) was maid of honor, and Jean Chmielewski was bridesmaid. Kenneth Van Patten was best man with William Fiege and Ted Chmielewski as ushers.

The couple lived in Park Ridge before moving to Channel Lake in 1949. They have two sons, Ray, Jr., attending Marquette University, and Barry, now working as an apprentice butcher. Both Mr. and Mrs. Van Patten have been active in civic affairs for many years in this area.

University of Illinois Mothers Association was founded in 1923.

Lake Villa, IL. 6-5372

LAKE VILLA—Two bus loads of Lake Villa Grade school pupils enjoyed an afternoon of roller skating at the roller rink at Twin Lakes, Wis.

The Naomi Circle of the Lake Villa Methodist Church will hold their next meeting on November 13, at the home of Mrs. Alvin Fegg of Venetian Village, starting at 8 p.m. Mrs. George Sebelia as co-hostess. Mrs. Melvin Colbert will give the devotion.

If you wish to buy a church plate which shows a picture of the old Lake Villa Methodist church located on Route 21, please contact Mrs. John Colbert of Lake Villa who now has charge of the sale.

A number of women of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Lake Villa Methodist church attended the Fall Rally at the Crystal Lake Methodist church on October 20. The theme for the rally was "Household of God." It included a business meeting, devotions and special music. Two outstanding speakers were present: Miss Dorothy Barnette, field worker for the Women's Division of Christian Service and Mrs. A. R. Henry, Vice President and chairman of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Mrs. Philip Wagner has resigned as teacher of the kindergarten of the Lake Villa Methodist Church after 14 years of faithful service. Mrs. Donald Myers will take over the class. Mrs. Martin Baba, formerly a teacher of the church, second grade, has moved to Phoenix, Ariz. and is being replaced by Mrs. George Reimer.

TAKE CARE!

We live in a curious, as well as a grim and unpredictable time.

Relations between this country and the Soviet Union never were more tense. There is a strong feeling that a final showdown over Berlin—a showdown which conceivably could lead to war—will come this fall or winter.

Yet various kinds of relations and negotiations between the two nations go on. Among them is a meeting to discuss a commercial air treaty.

The American negotiators are really going to have to keep on their toes in this. For the American line which would be permitted to fly to Russia if the negotiations succeed is Pan American World Airways is a private enterprise which must pay its own way and attempt to make some kind of a profit for its 40,000 stockholders.

The Soviet line is Aeroflot, a branch of the Soviet Air Force and a wholly-owned arm of the Soviet government. Profit and costs mean nothing to it. Significantly, the Soviet negotiator is a Soviet Air Force general.

Aeroflot, moreover, is a potent and expanding instrument in the Soviet government's economic offensive against the whole free world. Given a chance, it could present unmeetable competition, because it would have no regard for operating losses.

The American negotiators must, exhaustively, scan every word and comma before committing us to an agreement, if legitimate and vital American interests are to be guaranteed.

NO PAPERBACKS FOR BLIND READERS

Blind people cannot get their reading material in paper-backs at the corner newsstand. Instead they must depend on the publicly supported libraries for the blind. There are at present 31 regional libraries which serve as distributing centers for Talking Books and Braille material, according to the American Foundation for the Blind.

The difference between gossip and news depends on whether you hear it or tell it—Examiner, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

CAUGHT IN THE SQUEEZE

One of the homespun virtues of America has been to work and save. Even though a man knew he could not take it with him, he could hope to provide for his old age and for his wife and children after he was gone.

But inflation has turned this virtue into a mockery. Americans who have worked hard and lived carefully find now that the value has been sapped from the hard-earned dollars they put aside.

Inflation squeezes value from a dollar like a clenched fist squeezes water from a sponge. But the dollar feels no pain; it is people who are hurt. And the squeeze clamps hardest on people with a limited supply of dollars and no ready way to get more—widows living on life insurance, retired workers living on pensions, employed workers living on salaries.

Yet inflation is not inevitable. It is caused by our own actions and can be cured by our own actions. A major cause of inflation is heavy government spending and debt—caused by our demands on government handouts and by demanding government economy. Instead, we can hope for a cure.

For the last few months more and more citizens have been writing Congress saying they want less government aid so that the dollars they earn and save will be worth more. A few more letters to Congress may turn the tide against inflation.

Children of Vets Receive Benefits

Mr. Ralph B. Johnson, Administrator, Illinois Veterans' Commission, announced today that a Bill passed by the last session of the State Legislature and signed into law by Governor Kerner makes the State educational benefit under the Veterans' Children Educational Opportunities Act available to a few more children of certain deceased veterans.

He stated the Bill provides this benefit for the children of certain veterans who died in service or from a service-connected disability incurred during the following induction periods: September 16, 1940 to December 8, 1941; January 1, 1941 to June 26, 1950, and from February 1, 1955 to end of induction period (Draft).

He further explained the cause of death had to be the direct result of actual military duty or from extra hazardous service.

He advised any parent or guardian who feel that their children or wards come under this law and are entitled to this educational assistance should contact the nearest Illinois Veterans' Commission Office.

In Lake County, parents or guardians should contact the Illinois Veterans' Commission Office at 108 S. Genesee Street in Waukegan. The office is open Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Taught by her brother to twirl the baton at the age of six, Mrs. Brownlee accumulated 163 trophies and 303 medals through competition over a period of years. Her sister, also a baton expert, holds a national championship.

Local Girl Takes Role In A Shaw Production

Ellen Marie Homan, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Homan of Antioch and a sophomore at Kendall College in Evanston, appeared last week in "The Shewing Up of Blanco Posnet" an early avant-garde play by George Bernard Shaw. The production was set in a theater-in-the-square surrounding.

Miss Homan, a 1960 graduate of Antioch High School, is presently majoring in Library Science at Kendall.

SOCIALISM BY INDIRECTION
The following condensation of an editorial outlining self-evident truths appeared in "Service," published by the Kansas Power & Light Company:

"We live in a wonderful, exciting and highly rewarding country. We have more leisure time than any people in history and we have the freedom to indulge in the personal pleasures of our choice. Most of us take this for granted.

"It is not so much that we are smart. Rather we are just plain lucky—lucky because the heritage of our forefathers included deeply entrenched traits of thrift, initiative, independence and love of justice. We are lucky because some farsighted men met in a little court house almost 200 years ago and put words down on paper that shattered the tradition of centuries and released individual men for the pursuit of happiness of their own choosing.

"Today, this way of life is in danger—danger from outside our nation by the menace of communism, and danger from within by the growing menace of 'creeping socialism'.

"Whenever government enters a field of business in competition with its own citizens, or extends the scope of an established government enterprise, our nation takes another dangerous step down the road to socialism—the road from which there may be no return!

"It is not only government encroachment in private enterprise, that is responsible for this danger, but it is also the growing 'welfare' and the ever-increasing federal debt.

"We are firm in our resolution to ward off communism by keeping our national defense strong. This has been expensive but necessary. On the other hand, much of the increased federal spending on programs is unnecessary and the responsibility should be returned to where it rightfully belongs—local levels of government and private enterprise."

BLIND CALL FOR DYNAMIC PARTNERSHIP

Stating that more research is imperative, the American Foundation for the Blind, in the magazine "The New Outlook for the Blind," calls for a more dynamic partnership between government, private agencies, universities and the considerable facilities of industry to make a breakthrough which could yield the basic information necessary to combat the problems of blindness.

Thieves Hit Gas Station

The Antioch Servicenter reported that their establishment had been burglarized Thursday morning, Oct. 26, between the hours of 1 a.m. and 6 a.m.

Mrs. Bruno Manzardo estimated that the loss was an considerable cash amount. The watchdog, which is kept within the station, had apparently not been alarmed by the burglars, service attendant William Sullivan said.

The burglars had entered through a window which had been removed. They had attempted to escape from the station through a door which was wired electrically but were not able to determine how it opened and left by their same entrance.

Three cash boxes, kept hidden, were rifled, except for pennies. The fourth which was locked, was taken when they departed.

Both the Waukegan Sheriff's Office and Antioch Police Chief Walter Scott were called in on the case.

Residents' Daughter Is In Marching Band

It is here where our Atomic Age society can fail the child. Fifty years ago, or even 25, families grew up as a unit with parent, children and, perhaps, relatives spending a good deal of the time under the same roof. There was plenty of opportunity for verbal communication. A baby could absorb as much speech as his capabilities would allow.

A wise mother, who understands the important role she plays in baby's speech development, consciously talks a great deal to baby as the child approaches the linguistic stage. Not only does she repeat words after baby, but she talks to baby in simple sentences using the words that baby already associates with persons and objects, such words as sleep, cry, kiss, bed, milk, brother, sister, laugh and blanket. Thus, speaking distinctly and often, mother is helping baby develop his speech, learn a language and become more aware of the world around him.

Autumn Flies Are Causes Of Homemakers' Headaches

Flies are a problem this fall on many Illinois farms, reports Steve Moore, University of Illinois extension entomologist.

As fall creeps into the air, houseflies and face flies move indoors. The houseflies plan to bother you all winter. However, the face fly is looking for a place to hibernate.

Flies cluster around support post tops and windows, on ceilings and in warm, sunny spots. In homes, attics are a favorite fly hangout. Moore emphasizes that there'll be fewer face flies next spring if the flies are controlled now.

For barns, Moore recommends using a residual spray of Diazinon or Ronnel on the ceiling and walls. You can also brush a 0.2% DDVO sirup bait on places where the flies light. If you use a fogger, Moore suggests fogging the barn once a week for the next three weeks.

For attics, smear the 0.2% DDVO sirup bait on small pieces of cardboard, tin can lids or bottle caps.

To fog attics, use an aerosol bomb at least 0.1% pyrethrin. Fog several times because the flies keep coming in.

As with all insecticides, read the directions before using, Moore warns.

WHEN "CHEAP" EQUALS "EXPENSIVE"

We've all heard about the "cheap power" sold by the Tennessee Valley Authority and other socialized plants and systems.

And many of us have wondered how this economic achievement was possible.

If you're among that group, some facts released by the Kentucky Utilities Company will help you find the answer.

In 1960 the four investor-owned electric companies in Kentucky paid 14 times as much in taxes as the TVA, 28 rural electric cooperatives, and 22 municipally owned systems in Kentucky combined. The figures were $28 million for the private utilities—$1.8 million for all the public outlets.

And this vast difference in taxation was not due to a difference in worth or investment. The four investor-owned utilities have an investment of $475 million while that of the public power, the bulk of which is owned by TVA, is about the same—$490 million.

The report also points out that TVA is expected to pay $750,000 in lieu of local taxes in fiscal 1961, on nearly $300 million worth of property in Kentucky. Investor-owned companies would pay more than $3 million to state taxing agencies alone on this invested amount—to say nothing of federal taxes which TVA does not pay at all.

When the facts are revealed, it becomes clear that "cheap power" is mighty expensive from the taxpayers' point of view.

Direct mail advertising, according to a Newsweek article, has become a $2 billion a year business. One out of every three letters in the average American family's daily mail is an advertising circular. Some 200 companies compile and sell mailing lists, and gross $100 million a year. These lists are amazingly varied. To take just a few examples, they include lists of expectant mothers, Phi Beta Kappa members, new executives, peanut packers, music appreciators, and people interested in metaphysics.

The power generated by a hurricane like Carla is almost beyond the grasp of man's mind. The chief electrical engineer of the Central Louisiana Electric Company finds that Carla produced enough power to meet his company's production needs for 8,000 years. The company's power stations have a capacity of 315,000 kilowatts, and can generate 800 million kilowatt hours a year.

You can't expect to keep ahead of your bills if you let them do all the running.—News-Advertiser, Yamhill, Ore.

COUNTY TRUTH: "For a nation to remain free, its people must take the responsibility to keep that God-given freedom. What are you going to do about it? If you think you are too busy, remember Hungary, Tibet and Poland. Rearrange your schedule to fulfill your responsibility for the preservation of freedom. It is your life you want to save, as well as that of your loved ones and your country. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Helen Keller Decries
Abstract Bravery

"There is plenty of courage among us for the abstract, but not enough for the concrete, because we allow our daily bits of bravery to evaporate," says Helen Keller in a statement from the New Outlook for the Blind, published by the American Foundation for the Blind.
